

Adjustments to Portfolio Entry Pathway for 2009 Year 12 students

Edith Cowan University provides opportunities for all school students who have the capability and motivation to access university studies.

Due to the transitional phase between TEE subjects, CAF subjects and WACE Courses for students in Year 12 in 2009, ECU recognises that some students may have been disadvantaged and be ineligible to apply for entry through our successful Portfolio Pathway.

We would like to provide an opportunity for these students to access studies at ECU in 2010.

ECU has agreed the following arrangements for Portfolio Entry will be implemented for 2009 Year 12s who meet the specified criteria and wish to be considered for entry to ECU in 2010:

If a student in Year 12 in 2009 has studied at least four subjects/courses, which include a combination of three TEE and/or WACE Courses (Level 2 or 3) and/or ECU approved Wholly School Assessed (CAF subjects), ECU will provide the following pathways for possible entry to Bachelor level or the University Preparation Courses for 2010 entry.

Bachelor Courses

Students who meet the following requirements will be offered an interview for entry via the ECU Portfolio Pathway. Please note these requirements must be satisfied from their studies in Year 12.

- Studied in Year 12 at least four subjects/courses which include a combination of three TEE and/or WACE Courses (Level 2 or 3) and/or ECU approved Wholly School Assessed (CAF subjects); and
- Meets ECU's English Competency requirements; and
- Meets secondary graduation requirements of the Western Australian Certificate of Education; and
- Satisfies any course specific pre-requisite; and
- Scores at least 17 points toward Portfolio entry; and
- Submits a portfolio of documentation.

Note: The Portfolio Entry Pathway does not provide a pathway for the following courses:

Speech Pathology	Occupational Therapy
Engineering Science	Law and any double degree that includes Law.

As a result of the interview and assessment of the portfolio, as is the normal process for the Portfolio Pathway, a student may be offered a place in a Bachelor course, a place in the University Preparation Course or be advised of other options.

University Preparation Course

Students who meet the following requirements may be offered entry to the University Preparation Course:

- Studied at least four subjects/courses which include a combination of three TEE and/or WACE Courses (Level 2 or 3) and/or ECU approved Wholly School Assessed (CAF subjects); and
- Meets ECU's English Competency requirements; and
- Meets secondary graduation requirements of the Western Australian Certificate of Education; and
- Scores 8 to 16.5 points toward Portfolio Pathway; and
- Submits a portfolio of documentation.

As a result of the assessment of the portfolio a student may be offered a place in the University Preparation Course or be advised of other options.
